

CHINO VALLEY REGISTERED NURSES

BARGAINING UPDATE

#21
NOVEMBER 05, 2019

WE STAND UNITED

Chino Valley RNs stand united, with the backing of the community, which includes elected officials, patients and members of other unions.

On Tuesday, November 5, 2019, we met with Prime management for our first bargaining session since our historic three-day unfair labor practice (ULP) strike.

Prime still continues to disrespect us. Management did not offer anything that would move our bargaining forward.

Our bargaining team will hold meetings with our RNs in the near future to answer questions and talk about our plan to win.

WE ARE UNITED AND MUST CONTINUE TO STAND TOGETHER.
