THREE NEW TENTATIVE AGREEMENTS BENEFIT PHARMACISTS

Our United Pharmacists of Hawaii (UPHI) bargaining team has continued negotiating with management throughout March and April.

In recent days we achieved three new Tentative Agreements (TAs):

Scheduling. This agreement will guarantee us every other weekend off.

Bargaining Unit Work. This agreement limits the amount of bargaining unit work that supervisors can perform, freeing them up to provide needed support. This helps to preserve pharmacist jobs and protect us against displacement by supervisors.

Membership. This gives us the right to time with new members during new employee orientation (NEO), so we can introduce our union and our contract right away.

With these three new agreements we've reached 22 TAs so far in bargaining.

We return to the table this week today, April 28 and Friday, April 30.

Stay tuned for more updates!
