SFRNA BARGAINING UPDATE #3

At the bargaining table this week, management continued to reject every proposal to improve care and safety for the community we serve, including anything to do with Title XXII, safe ratios, acuties, orientation and training for new grads and floating, Just Culture, or PPE to protect us in a future pandemic.

QUOTES FROM MANAGEMENT AT THE BARGAINING TABLE:

"We're following Title XXII."

"If you think it's so bad, don't work here."

"We're not in agreement with the Just Culture principles."

QUOTES FROM SFRNA BARGAINING TEAM & MEMBERS:

"We are our community. Prime is not helping, and our community needs us."

–Celestine Blaylock, RN, 7th floor nights.

"When I'm pulled away from the MICN radio because of short staffing, that's someone in the community who needs help that can't get help."

–Daniel Cote, RN, ED, MICN

"Having to choose which emergency you will respond to should never have to be a choice."

–Sandi Marques, RN, SFRNA bargaining team and longtime St. Francis nurse

"Their proposals seem to reflect their desire to diminish standards of care."

–Edwin Guardado, RN, Kaiser Downey, longtime former SFRNA officer and member
